PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☒ To issue a warrant.
☐ To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation

Nature of Noncompliance

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. New Law Violation –
Operating while Intoxicated, 1 st
Offense | On November 25, 2020, Mr. Williams was arrested by the Burlington, Iowa, Police Department. At approximately 3:40am, officers were dispatched to McDonald's in response to a vehicle sitting in the drive through with the wheel on the curb. Upon officers arriving on scene, they found Mr. Williams sleeping in the driver's seat of the vehicle with the vehicle still running and shifted into drive. Mr. Williams failed all three standardized field sobriety tests and registered a preliminary breath test result of .201% on scene. He was transported to the Des Moines County Jail where he consented to providing a Datamaster test which indicated a blood alcohol content of .165%. |
| 2. Leaving the Judicial District without Permission | On November 25, 2020, when Mr. Williams was arrested for the above-noted offense, he was being supervised by the U.S. Probation Office for the Eastern District of Wisconsin. He had not been granted permission from his supervising officer to be in Iowa on that date. |
| 3. Failure to Report Contact with Law enforcement within 72
hours | Mr. Williams failed to notify his supervising officer in the Eastern District of Wisconsin of the above police contact and his subsequent arrest. |
| 4. Use of a Controlled Substance -
Marijuana | On December 18, 2020, Mr. Williams provided a urine sample which tested presumptive positive for marijuana. The sample was confirmed positive by the national lab on December 24, 2020. |

5. Use of Alcohol

Mr. Williams used alcohol to the point on intoxication on November 25, 2020.

6. Failure to follow the instructions of the probation officer

The Eastern District of Wisconsin advised of these violations and indicated that Mr. Williams did not accept their presented modification for Remote Alcohol Testing. Mr. Williams indicated he would like to return to the Southern District of Iowa. The Probation Office worked with Mr. Williams to develop an address in Burlington, Iowa; however, the owner of the home was unable to be reached by phone and an attempted inspection of the residence on January 7, 2021, was unsuccessful. Mr. Williams was provided with a waiver of hearing by email regarding a modification for up to 120 days at a Residential Reentry Center. He has not responded to this email.

The Eastern District of Wisconsin agreed to continue to supervise Mr. Williams until a relocation plan could be developed in Iowa. However, the Probation Office has been unable to contact him since January 14, 2021. Between January 14, 2021 and today's date, six attempted calls (with four voicemails) and two text messages have been sent to Mr. Williams without a response. Each voicemail and text message included instructions to contact the Probation Office as soon as possible. On January 26, 2021, the probation office contacted Mr. Williams' mother who advised she had not seen him in a few days. She indicated that, to her knowledge, he is still utilizing the same phone number.

At this time, the Eastern District of Wisconsin is no longer willing to supervise Mr. Williams' case. He does not have a suitable residence in Iowa. Based on the information provided by his mother, and the inability to get into contact with him, Mr. Williams' whereabouts are currently unknown.
